

For Immediate Release --

Contact:

Rob Robinson

Stunt Kitty Films

rob@stuntkittyfilms.com

<http://www.stuntkittyfilms.com>

"Attack of the Baby Doll" Set to Scare Up Laughs At Wisconsin Film Fest

North Hollywood, CA, September 22, 2007 - Stunt Kitty Films (SKF) is thrilled to announce their short horror-comedy, "Attack of the Baby Doll" has been selected to screen at It Came From Lake Michigan! Film Fest 2007, Wisconsin's Independent Genre Film Festival (ICFLM-2007) celebrating Horror, Sci-Fi and Fantasy Film Making running October 25 through 28th, 2007 in Milwaukee, WI.

One man's trash is another man's... nightmare! in the eerie tale of a musical theater writer (Philip Fiass) with a mania for doll collecting who conspires with his wanna b-movie actress aunt (Debora Roventini the uncanny) for a one-of-a-kind baby doll which humorously explores themes of identity, celebrity and loneliness while referencing famous Hollywood films as diverse as "Sunset Blvd", "E.T." and "Flashdance".

The film also stars Las Vegas radio and TV personality Justin Cooper, William Bertrand (Eddie from the notorious "Night Trap" video game), real-life "Sweepstakes King" Steve Ledoux along with Elizabeth Bailey and a bevy of beauties.

SKF Writer/Producer Rob Robinson says, "I couldn't imagine a more exciting event to introduce our film. ICFLM-2007 festival founder/director Wayne Clingman really appreciates the kind of films we make and has created a gigantic love fest for genre film makers and their fans in the Midwest."

"Attack of the Baby Doll" is notable for being one of a small but growing number of genre films directed by women. The film's director Debora Roventini, like her contemporaries Devi Snively ("Teenage Bikini Vampire",

- more -

"Attack of the Baby Doll" At Film Fest (page 2)

"Confederate Zombie Massacre") and Paula Haifley ("Movie Monster Insurance"), brings a fresh and creative approach to the usually male-dominated world of genre film making.

Screening time for Short Block IV which includes "Attack of the Baby Doll" along with "Curse of the Wendigo" and "Projection Booth" is Saturday, October 27 at 8 pm at the Tommy Thompson Center, State Fair Park, West Alice, Wisconsin, 53214.

About STUNT KITTY FILMS:

The fledgling North Hollywood-based micro studio combines the creative talents of writer/producer Rob Robinson, director/editor/actress Debora Roventini and writer/director/actor Philip Faiss with a close knit circle of friends and family to produce their own brand of family-friendly genre films for monster kids of all ages.

For more information about "Attack of the Baby Doll" and Stunt Kitty Films please visit

<http://www.stunkittyfilms.com/babydoll>

Inquiries regarding DVD screening copies and press kits may be made directly to Rob Robinson at rob@stunkittyfilms.com

About IT CAME FROM LAKE MICHIGAN:

Now in it's second year, It Came From Lake Michigan is Wisconsin's Premiere Independent Genre Film Festival, celebrating the art of Horror, Science Fiction, and Fantasy Film Making.

Taking place at the Wisconsin State Fair Park, just minutes from Milwaukee, the festival boasts a large variety of film screenings and premieres, special guests, musical performances, classes and film making workshops, a gala party, and a large vendor room, allowing filmmakers and fans to mix and mingle in a casual and fun environment.

More information about ICFLM-2007 can be found at the festival website: <http://www.itcamefromlakemichigan.com>

####